* Consensus estimating conferences generally operate on the assumption that current law and current administrative practices will remain in effect throughout the period for which the official information developed by the conference is to be used. See s. 216.134(1), F.S. The Labor Market Estimating Conference (LMEC) follows this current law/current administration approach and assumes that all current material efforts by stakeholders to provide training or education will continue without significant interruption. The LMEC also assumes that lists adopted prior to the effective date of CS/CS/CS/HB 1507 (2021) and through June 30, 2022, that are used to guide those efforts will continue to be used unless or until further analysis adopted by the LMEC clearly indicates otherwise.

* Consensus estimating conferences generally operate on the assumption that current law and current administrative practices will remain in effect throughout the period for which the official information developed by the conference is to be used. See s. 216.134(1), F.S. The Labor Market Estimating Conference (LMEC) follows this current law/current administration approach and assumes that all current material efforts by stakeholders to provide training or education will continue without significant interruption. The LMEC also assumes that lists adopted prior to the effective date of CS/CS/CS/HB 1507 (2021) and through June 30, 2022, that are used to guide those efforts will continue to be used unless or until further analysis adopted by the LMEC clearly indicates otherwise.

* Consensus estimating conferences generally operate on the assumption that current law and current administrative practices will remain in effect throughout the period for which the official information developed by the conference is to be used. See s. 216.134(1), F.S. The Labor Market Estimating Conference (LMEC) follows this current law/current administration approach and assumes that all current material efforts by stakeholders to provide training or education will continue without significant interruption. The LMEC also assumes that lists adopted prior to the effective date of CS/CS/CS/HB 1507 (2021) and through June 30, 2022, that are used to guide those efforts will continue to be used unless or until further analysis adopted by the LMEC clearly indicates otherwise.

* Consensus estimating conferences generally operate on the assumption that current law and current administrative practices will remain in effect throughout the period for which the official information developed by the conference is to be used. See s. 216.134(1), F.S. The Labor Market Estimating Conference (LMEC) follows this current law/current administration approach and assumes that all current material efforts by stakeholders to provide training or education will continue without significant interruption. The LMEC also assumes that lists adopted prior to the effective date of CS/CS/CS/HB 1507 (2021) and through June 30, 2022, that are used to guide those efforts will continue to be used unless or until further analysis adopted by the LMEC clearly indicates otherwise.

* Consensus estimating conferences generally operate on the assumption that current law and current administrative practices will remain in effect throughout the period for which the official information developed by the conference is to be used. See s. 216.134(1), F.S. The Labor Market Estimating Conference (LMEC) follows this current law/current administration approach and assumes that all current material efforts by stakeholders to provide training or education will continue without significant interruption. The LMEC also assumes that lists adopted prior to the effective date of CS/CS/CS/HB 1507 (2021) and through June 30, 2022, that are used to guide those efforts will continue to be used unless or until further analysis adopted by the LMEC clearly indicates otherwise.
