If the constitutional amendment creating the commission is adopted, the one-time costs for the 2007 redistricting that will result from adoption of this amendment are estimated to range from $6.7 million to $13.4 million for state government and $6.5 million to $7.5 million for local governments. These estimates include the state costs of the commission and associated staff, data, technology and legal expenses, and the local government costs to the supervisors of elections.
