

2017 Analysis¹

Total Universe 138% FPL	2,059,861
Medicaid Eligible Today ²
Ages 19-20	28,144
Pregnant Women	60,297
SSI, Aged, Disabled	234,655
Parents	70,344
Newly Eligible	1,666,421
Insured Population Above Current Medicaid Program Thresholds
Ages 19-20	60,661
Pregnant Women	0
SSI, Aged, Disabled	189,541
Parents	315,891
Childless Adults	520,946
Newly Eligible Uninsured	579,382
Population Aged 19-64
Universe (Citizens)	10,504,437
Universe (Citizens and Non-Citizens)	11,985,877

April 1st Population Estimates Ages 19-64

	Citizens and Non-Citizens³	Citizens	Newly Eligible Uninsured Citizens
2018	12,207,090	10,698,308	590,075
2019	12,360,870	10,833,081	597,509
2020	12,507,743	10,961,801	604,608
2021	12,609,650	11,051,112	609,534
2022	12,707,836	11,137,163	614,281
2023	12,802,419	11,220,055	618,853
2024	12,890,904	11,297,604	623,130
2025	12,972,778	11,369,358	627,088

Sources and Note:

¹ US Census Bureau, American Community Survey (ACS), 5-year Public Use Microdata Sample, 2013-2017

² Medicaid program capped at 138% for components that exceed the threshold today

³ Age projections consistent with the February 2019 Florida Demographic Estimating Conference, University of Florida, Bureau of Economic and Business Research (published and unpublished data)